HOW TO REQUEST LIBRARY BOOKS

Palmer Memorial Library

Until further notice, book shelves remain closed, and library staff will retrieve book requests for Texarkana College students, faculty, and staff.

1. Search the online catalog at https://tamuttc.worldcat.org/.
2. From your TC email account, send a list of titles with the call number to library@texarkanacollege.edu.
3. You will get an email confirming that a library staff member confirming that your request has been received. You will schedule a time with that staff member that you can either pick up the books or schedule curbside pickup on Tucker Street.
4. Regular checkout limits of ten items per student still apply. Books will be checked out for two weeks and should be returned to the Main Help-desk in the Library.

African American Heritage

African American Heritage is a groundbreaking digital resource exclusively devoted to African American family history research. This collection was created in partnership with leading African American genealogists and recognized leaders in genealogical information to develop a comprehensive mix of resources, records, and tools specifically pertaining to African Americans.As a consequence of slavery and the changing legal status of African Americans, research in this area can be more challenging than other genealogical inquiries.

Agricola

Containing bibliographic records from the U.S. Department of Agriculture's National Agricultural Library, this source provides access to millions of citations. The citations are comprised of journal articles, book chapters, theses, and more, all relating to the field of agriculture.

Agriculture (Gale OneFile)

Provides a comprehensive view of current and authoritative periodical content that spans the agriculture industry--from practical aspects of farming to scientific research in horticulture.

Alt HealthWatch

Alt Healthwatch is a full-text alternative health research database focused on complementary, holistic and integrated approaches to health care and wellness. It offers the latest information about the evolving practice of holistic medicine and therapies. It offers full-text articles from more than 190 international and often peer-reviewed journals. Subjects include acupuncture, aromatherapy, childbirth, Chinese medicine, chiropractic, herbalism, homeopathy,

Financial Literacy

Designed for college students - especially TRIO, first-generation and students with financial need - LIT™ is a video-based platform that empowers students to play an active role in their finances. We equip students with the tools and money know-how they need to tackle their personal finances in the real world. Through these videos, TRIO SSS students have access to over seventy different topics designed to help improve your ability to manage your finances. Let us know which ones help you the most.

ALL TRIO SSS students should have received an email from ReisUp with a username and password information. If you cannot find that email, just do a reset password from the website to get another one, or email tara@reisupllc.com and she will send it to you.
